

DISABLED CANDIDATES

Considerable flexibility of ceremonial is available to even severely disabled candidates. They should not therefore be discouraged in their desire to become Freemasons. As each situation tends to be unique, discussions with a view to assisting such a candidate should be initiated with your Group and thence with the Province.