

DRESS

English Masons, when at Lodge, are generally expected to dress in a dark suit, with white collar and black shoes, together with a permitted tie (see guidance on ties on this website).

The standard of dress required at any particular Lodge is usually stated on the summons. White gloves are worn in most Lodges.

Note: Non-Masonic Jewels / Military or civilian Medals should NOT be worn in Lodge or at the festive Board.